

End of Support (EOS) Software Report List

Description: The importance of replacing software before its End-of-Support (EOS) is critical. EOS occurs when software updates, patches, and other forms of support are no longer offered, resulting in software becoming prone to future security vulnerabilities. Using unsupported software and firmware/hardware, puts organizations at risk in the following ways:

- Subsequent vulnerabilities disclosures place your organization at significant risk.
- Subject your organization to regulatory compliance issues/violations.
- Increases support costs by having a need for extended support

The process of finding EOS dates and locating all the instances of obsolete products can be a difficult and time-consuming task. The following table is for software with EOS dates from January 2019 to April 2020 and please take a look and check if one or many of your softwares, hardwares or firmwares are not among the End-of-Support (EOS) list below and then react:

Rw-CSIRT is strongly recommending users and administrators to check all the software and firmware/hardware that are currently in use in your institutions, if they are not listed above and then replace/upgrade them before it reaches EOS and this will significantly reduce any risks and costs associated with EOS

Any assistance: please contact Rw-CSIRT by calling us on 4045 or writing to security@risa.rw
